MIRAVAL RESORT & SPA LAUNCHES NEW SUMMER SAVINGS PACKAGES
The Best of Summer at Miraval is Now Available at Amazing Rates

June 10, 2010 (Tucson, AZ) – Miraval Resort & Spa, the award-winning, luxurious Tucson destination is now offering four new summer savings packages for guests to enjoy the best of summer at the best summer rates. Miraval's new summer offering—which will extend from June through August—allows guests to experience what makes Miraval special with a variety of summer packages that give them the chance to plan their stay, their way.

For fifteen years, Miraval has been a catalyst for a healthy lifestyle change or simply a place to rest, reflect and re-energize. With a core philosophy geared toward helping people lead balanced lives, Miraval provides a place for guests to achieve new levels of spiritual growth and self-discovery. With these great offers, guests can now enjoy a highly customized stay at Miraval while taking advantage of the reduced rates.

“With new, one-of-a-kind spa treatments, renowned specialists and dynamic programming—all at a reduced rate—summer is an ideal time to take advantage of all we have to offer,” said Michael Tompkins, President and General Manager of Miraval Resort & Spa. “With this season’s incredible and customizable packages, it’s easier than ever for our guests to get the most out of their stays.”

Miraval's Summer offerings will include special deals geared toward both the local community and those traveling from other parts of the globe. All-inclusive stays at Miraval include luxury accommodations in one of the resort's casita guestrooms, all healthful and flavorful meals, snacks and non-alcoholic beverages, transportation to and from the Tucson International airport, a $130 resort credit per person per night, and unlimited access to a vast array of "Clue-In" self-discovery activities. Below is a list of these new summer packages. Full details on these packages and other great offers can be found at www.miravalresorts.com.
